

Words and Definitions for Verbs Set One

Listen to the accompanying MP3 and read these definitions and sentences. This will train your brain to master these words.

Savour = to enjoy an experience as much as possible.

Even though this Belgian chocolate was expensive, it is so tasty. I'm going to savour every piece of it.

Decipher = to discover or understand what something means.

His writing is so bad that I can't decipher a single word of it.

Affix = to stick one thing to another thing.

I affixed an extra stamp to the envelope to make sure I covered the postage.

Badger = to keep asking questions or to keep persuading someone.

Please stop badgering me about losing weight. I will do so when I'm ready.

Jeer = to shout rude and insulting things at someone.

He was jeered by the angry crowd, but there was no violence.