

Example Sentences for Adjectives Set Three

Listen to the accompanying MP3 and read these sentences. This will train your brain to master these words.

Avid = very interested and enthusiastic

Puny = very small and weak

Quaint = interesting and attractive because of being old-fashioned

Benign = nice and kind

Delectable = something that looks or tastes extremely good

Interviewer: So tell me, what do you like to do in your free time?

Interviewee: I'm an avid golfer. I play at least twice a week.

Your son is one of the top students in his class. He shows an avid interest in every subject, particularly science and history.

Some people say it's a boring hobby, but I'm an avid stamp collector. I have more than 3,000 stamps in my growing collection.

My girlfriend and I are avid moviegoers. We love watching all kinds of films.

His opponent's puny little punches were no match for the unbeaten heavyweight. He knocked out his victim in just 2 rounds.

I plan on doing some major work on my back garden, starting with removing these puny trees and replacing them with larger ones.

The company is small and puny compared to its gigantic competitors. It will do well to compete against them.

Maria: What score did you get for the science exam?

Pauline: I did terribly. I got a puny 37% on it. I need to study much harder in future.

I absolutely love your new house, Fiona. It looks beautifully quaint from the outside and is so modern on the inside.

Charles Dickens' novels are full of quaint words and expressions which make you feel as if you are in Victorian England.

Tourist: Can you recommend any nice restaurants in the area?

Guide: Yes, there's a quaint little Italian restaurant just a few minutes away.

We spent the day wandering around Prague, taking in the quaint architecture of the city.

In order to make a more peaceful, benign world, we need to welcome others instead of creating enemies and divisions.

Husband: Have you met the new neighbour yet?

Wife: Yes, she is the most benign lady ever. She invited us for dinner tomorrow evening.

The criminal walked around with a benign smile. However, his intentions were anything but benign.

Using eco-friendly products has a small but benign effect on the planet.

The beaches on the island are delectable, with their white sand and peaceful atmosphere.

France is famous for its wide variety of delectable cheeses, including camembert and brie.

Emma, your cooking smells delectable. I can't wait to see it and tuck in.

We just came back from a trip to Brussels and brought back this delectable Belgian chocolate for you. Try some.