

Words and Definitions for Nouns Set Five

Listen to the accompanying MP3 and read these definitions and sentences. This will train your brain to master these words.

Blight = something that has a very bad effect on something

The blight of unemployment has caused many people to leave the city.

Bliss = complete happiness

My idea of bliss is simply lying on the sofa with a cup of tea and a good book.

Spate = a large number of bad things happening at the same time

There's been a spate of robberies in the area recently, so make sure you lock your windows and doors.

Feat = an achievement or act that is impressive

The driver's run of winning 12 races in a row was an incredible feat.

Succour = help given to someone

The organisation offers succour to those in desperate need.